Excerpt from Proceedings of American Numismatic Society: For the Sixty-First Annual Meeting and List of Officers and Members The sixty-first annual meeting of The American Numismatic Society was called to order at 3.20 P. M. on January 11th, 1919. Mr. Henry Russell Drowne presiding. The reading of the minutes of the last regular meeting of the Society and of the Intervening evenings was approved. The address of President Newell was read by the Secretary. President's Address. Gentlemen - It seems presumptuous indeed for me to submit a report, however short and necessarily superficial, on the activities of our Society during the eventful year of 1918, because I have spent a little more than half of this year away from New York as an humble member of the United States Army. Our Secretary, Mr. Noe, was able to keep me in touch with events in the Society until in September, when he too left for The Coast Artillery, O. T. C. and after that date Mr. Wood or Mr. Wyman sent in reports from time to time. Most fortunately for the Society...

Reviews

An extremely wonderful pdf with perfect and lucid information. Better than never, though I am quite late in starting reading this one. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.

-- Elenor Koch PhD

This publication will be worth purchasing. It is written in straightforward words and not hard to understand. I am just very happy to explain how here is the best ebook we have read in my own lifestyle and might be the best publication for at any time.
