Createspace, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . A British Rock Star from the 1980 s has been accused of two counts of sexual assault. He must be guilty, Right? Well the newspapers and television channels certainly think so. Tom Harwell has now become a wealthy Christian businessman. But he has a past that is about to hit him hard and bring him crashing down. Tom Harwell s chief accuser is the ambitious reporter Lindi Loukas. She is a young woman with a mission and that is to promote her own career, no matter what the cost to anyone else. Including Tom Harwell. Would You Find Him Guilty? A Good Clean Read with no foul language and no explicit details. Just great characters in a gripping story of injustice and misunderstanding. A Cozy Mystery. Ken Jones is an author and publisher from the UK. This is his second major novel and the first of the Lindi Loukas Reports series. The book is 60,000 words long.
