SUGAR TIME

By Jane Adams

Paperback. Condition: New. 216 pages. What if you got one last chance at both love and success but getting one meant giving up the other. That's the kind of choice a woman makes one way when she's still young - when more of the future is before her than behind her - but when she's Sugar Kane's age (between her first issue of Modern Maturity and her first Social Security check - what to do is much harder to decide than it was back when she believed she could have it all. Sugar hasn't had a hit TV series in years, but now she's older, wiser, and ready to prove she can still deliver. When she meets Alex Carroll, she starts to believe that maybe having everything is possible after all. Then she faces a crisis that threatens everything she holds dear, including her life. A smart, funny, resonant novel about love, sex, money, work, family and friendship by best-selling self-help writer and psychologist Jane Adams. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg, OR, La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
