Natalie Connors, a beautiful young woman fleeing an abusive relationship and looking for a fresh start, is hired by Brent's best buddy, another war veteran, as a home health care aide to help Brent adapt to his newly darkened world. Thrown together by fate, they take the first tentative steps toward love . . . But when Natalie's vicious ex tracks her down, can the passion and tenderness she and Brent share protect her? At First Sight is a highly emotional story about two damaged people and the healing they must go through before they can commit and find their happily-ever-after.
