Excerpt from Forensic Facts and Fallacies: A Popular Consideration of Some Legal Points and Principles There is one thing of which we are all supposed to have a full and equal knowledge. And though the observation may seem wanting in reflection, it is nevertheless true, or rather far less than the truth. For the knowledge which every one is assumed to have is the knowledge, not of a simple fact but of a complex science which no one has ever yet mastered, and which the study of a lifetime leaves half unknown.
